

Ríu ríu chíu

Sixteenth Century Carol from Spain
Arranged by Henry Leck

Allegro Moderato
REFRAIN

1 do

Rí - u rí - u chí - u la guar - da ri - be - ra,

2 do

Hand Drum

Finger Cymbals

6

1

Dios guar-do el lo - bo de nues - tra cor -

2

Dios guar-do el lo - bo, el lo - bo de nues - tra cor -

11

1

de - ra. Dios guar-do el lo - bo de nues -

2

de - ra. Dios guar-do el lo - bo, el lo - bo de nues -

16

Fine VERSE

1

tra cor - de - ra. 1. Now is come the time to sing with joy and

2 tra cor - de - ra.

22

1 praise. Sing-ing of the birth, we've known through - out our

2

27

1 age. May we come to - geth - er with hope and peace and

2

31

D. C. al Fine

love. Shar-ing with each oth - er the sym-bol of the dove.

2. As we find this season clear with warmth within us,
Maybe we will see the meaning of forgiveness.
See in one another growing day by day,
Toward a closer, loving time we all would pray. Refrain

3. So with treasured gifts and hope for years to come,
May we seek the meaning of the newborn Son.
Living life together with hope and truth and love,
Sharing what we have through the love from up above. Refrain

4. Now with celebration we gather far and near,
Seeking new relation with those we hold most dear.
As we come together, we hope for bright days long,
So we join together and we sing this song. Refrain